We are
BOOK EX MACHINA

SOME THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT US

We are an independent imprint based in Nicosia, Cyprus.

Established in 2010 by photographer Thodoris Tzalavras and writer Ioanna Mavrou, Book Ex Machina specializes in publication of small runs and special editions of art and photography books of the highest caliber.

Our first book NICOSIA IN DARK AND WHITE, a selection of photographs of the derelict and abandoned houses adjacent to the Green Line in Nicosia, won third place in the prestigious Best Photography Book Award, Pictures of the Year International (POYi).

Our second book MATCHBOOK STORIES is a literary magazine in matchbox form. Issue 1 was handmade in a limited edition and is now almost sold out so if you want a copy, hurry!
